

ASRT will review and track CE credit for ASRT members who submit this credit application within the biennium during which their peer-reviewed article is published. Author credit is for articles from journals indexed in Medline or from this ARRT List.

ASRT members please submit the documentation listed below. Non-ASRT members may use this form but must maintain their own documentation for author credit.

1. Author Information

Name _____ ASR T ID or Unique Identifier _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ ZIP _____

Cell phone (_____) _____ Email address _____

2. Publication Information

A copy of the title page of the journal, homestudy or book that features the author's name and date of publication plus the first page of the actual document are considered proper documentation by ARRT.

Title of publication _____

Title of article/text _____

Publication date _____ Publisher _____

Category A CE credits earned for authorship may not be used to comply with ARRT education requirements that require a credit distribution and are linked to the content outlines (i.e., Structured Education, CQR).

Peer-reviewed journal articles that meet all required criteria will be awarded Category A CE credits as follows:

- 4 Category A CE credits for an article with a single author listed.
- 2 Category A CE credits for an article with more than one author listed (each author listed is eligible to receive 2 Category A CE credits for the same article).

Return completed form by:

1. Upload on website by visiting www.asrt.org > CE > Track CE Credits > Submit CE Online.
2. Downloading the ASRT CE phone app.
3. Email it as a pdf to CETrack@asrt.org.
