Most Memorable Experiences:

During this year's Radiological Society of North America Annual Meeting, I had the privilege of witnessing the session I coordinated about advanced practice provider roles in radiology come to life. Seeing ASRT President Brandon A. Smith moderate a session that I worked so diligently to plan was an incredibly emotional and rewarding moment. The ongoing support I received throughout the RSNA event from our exceptional leaders, ASRT CEO Dr. Melissa B. Pergola, President Brandon A. Smith, and President-elect Marissa Mangrum, has further reinforced my passion and my commitment to educating others about the vital role of medical imaging and radiation therapy professionals.

Closing Remarks:

Throughout this year, it has been an honor to work alongside the exceptional ASRT staff, my fellow Board members and other organizational leaders to advance the entire medical imaging and radiation therapy profession. I am grateful for the opportunity to continue my service in the coming years and to work closely with Marissa Mangrum, our outstanding president-elect. As president-elect in the coming year, I am sincerely excited to collaborate with Marissa and provide support as her presidential initiatives take shape and come to fruition.
