Most Memorable Experiences:

Working with the Board and cultivating relationships to get to know everyone better while developing my own leadership skills has been very encouraging. It has been a pleasure traveling to some fantastic affiliate meetings, seeing the passionate, dedicated work of our members and being able to share information with each other. Meeting such wonderful individuals committed to bettering our profession and their community was invigorating.

Closing Remarks:

I have thoroughly enjoyed serving as your vice speaker of the House, preparing for this year's House of Delegates Meeting. Working with the different committees and the vast array of professionals throughout this year has been a pleasure. Seeing fellow members' desire to make our profession and Society better is incredibly inspiring. I am so honored to have been a part of the hard work of all these committees. Thank you for a fantastic year and the honor of representing you as your vice speaker.
