Welcome Letter & Delegate Requirements

American Society of Radiologic Technologists

April 2025

Dear Delegate:

Welcome to the 2025 ASRT Annual Governance and House of Delegates Meeting!

This year's meeting will be held at the Nugget Casino Resort in Reno, Nevada. Please review the Delegate Handbook and print any pages you need prior to your arrival. Please pay particular attention to the motions we will be discussing, using the links provided to access the necessary documents. If you have any issues accessing the most recent documents prior to the onsite meeting, please feel free to reach out to me via email or on the ASRT Communities.

Please use the information in the Agenda and Standing Rules sections to plan your personal meeting schedule. The Program at a Glance section lists room assignments, House of Delegates meetings and delegate check-in times. It also highlights the meetings you are required to attend as a delegate in order to fulfill your duties and qualify for airfare and hotel funding. The times listed for meetings are estimates; plan your travel to ensure you are able to attend all required meetings. Delegates are also required to complete an Annual Governance and House of Delegates report. You can review the Delegate Requirements document for more information. Also outlined in the House of Delegates Procedure Manual is the check-in procedure and expectations for delegates as well as general House operations.

Delegates must be verified at the credentials desk before they can be issued delegate ribbons to attach to their badges and be seated as delegates. To obtain your ribbon, you will need a photo ID. If you need to provide your current ASRT membership card, affiliate membership card, American Registry of Radiologic Technologists or equivalent registration card, or an unrestricted state license, ASRT's governance staff will contact you prior to the meeting.

While in Reno, I hope you will take advantage of opportunities to network with new and old friends, visit with exhibitors and attend the Reception and Pin Exchange, which will be held at the ASRT Expo on Thursday evening.

We have a full agenda. I have total confidence that we can complete our business in an expeditious manner if everyone comes prepared.

If you have questions, please email me at spike@asrt.org or contact Jason Bradley, ASRT vice president of governance and public policy, at 800-444-2778, Ext. 1350.

I look forward to seeing each of you and to your active participation in the 2025 House of Delegates.

Sincerely,

ASRT House of Delegates

Standing Rules

2025

Credentials

1. Verification of identification and credential status for members of the House of Delegates must be presented and available during all annual governance meeting activities and cannot be transferred. Delegates who arrive after the credentials report has been adopted are entitled to vote on any matters coming before the house.
2. Identification badges issued to House of Delegates members must be worn for all official annual governance meeting activities and cannot be transferred.
3. The vice speaker shall report the number of credentialed delegates at the first business meeting of the House.
4. The vice speaker shall present a supplemental credentials report at the beginning of the second business meeting of the House or at any time upon the request of the speaker or 20 members of the House of Delegates.
5. A registered alternate delegate can, upon proper credentialing prior to the annual governance meeting, be transferred to delegate status. To be seated, this transfer must take place prior to the beginning of the business meeting at which the delegate will be seated, and the duration shall be for the appropriate term in accordance with an absence or vacancy.

Motions and Debate

6. The names of makers and seconders of any motion will not be included in the minutes unless specifically requested.
7. Consent calendars may be used in this meeting. When a consent calendar is called up, upon the request of a single delegate, a motion shall be removed from the consent calendar. After all motions that the House desires to remove from the consent calendar have been removed, the remaining items on the consent calendar are thereby approved without a vote. All items removed from the consent calendar will then be considered in the order they would have otherwise been considered on the agenda.
8. All main motions and late motions submitted by delegates, chapters and affiliates shall be submitted electronically through ASRT's online motion form and signed by the maker and seconder. Electronic signatures are accepted.
9. All main motions submitted by the Practice Standards Council shall be considered made by inclusion in the midyear committee report.
10. All main motions submitted by the Committee on Bylaws and Commission shall be considered made by inclusion in the committees' final reports to the House of Delegates.
11. Amendments to main motions may only be offered during the second business meeting of the House.

12. Delegates wishing to speak must wait to be recognized by the speaker and shall state their name and delegate status.
13. Delegates wishing to speak who are ASRT appointees to accreditation and certification agencies or who are members of boards of other radiologic science organizations shall state their name and delegate status and identify the organization they represent.
14. Sergeants-at-arms shall identify members who wish to make a motion that can interrupt.
15. For each debatable motion, a delegate shall be allowed to speak for up to two minutes. The delegate may speak a second time to the same question after all other delegates wishing to do so have had the opportunity to speak once.
16. Contrary to Robert's Rules of Order, a substitute motion will be treated the same as an amendment to strike and insert but applicable to an entire paragraph.
17. Motions to amend by striking out and/or inserting language in different locations within the motion will be processed as a single amendment. In all forms of amendment, the speaker may waive the "settled" rule for amendments at the discretion of the speaker.
18. Because all main motions are presented electronically, motions to amend by striking out and/or inserting the same language in multiple documents may be processed as a single amendment.
19. If the desired purpose of calling a caucus is to relax the rules of debate, a member must move to consider the business informally. If the desired purpose of a caucus is to instruct a portion of the body on how to vote, a member must move to recess. A delegate may request a caucus with other delegates and nondelegate attendees with the support of 10 delegates on any issue to be voted on, provided the request is made prior to the vote to be taken. The duration of the caucus shall be at the discretion of the speaker and shall be subject to the following rules:
 - 19.1. Caucus rooms will be provided if available and practicable.
 - 19.2. The proponents of a measure under consideration shall designate a caucus co-moderator. Opponents of the measure under consideration shall designate a caucus co-moderator.
 - 19.3. If either co-moderator desires separate caucuses, they may declare so and each will caucus in a different location and not be subject to 19.4.
 - 19.4. Time for discussion shall be divided equally among proponents and opponents with the co-moderators keeping time with no delegate being allowed to speak more than 90 seconds, excluding the moderators.
 - 19.5. One request for an extension of no more than 15 minutes may or may not be granted by the speaker.
 - 19.6. No caucus may be called for a second time on the same main motion.
20. The Committee on Bylaws, Commission and Practice Standards Council are authorized to correct article and section designation, punctuation and cross-references and to make such other editorial and conforming changes as may be necessary to reflect the intent of the Society in connection with the adopted amendments to bylaws, position statements and Practice Standards. Changes will be reported to delegates.

Voting

21. Delegates may cast votes by any method as prescribed by the speaker. The speaker shall determine the best method for casting votes and may select different methods for different votes.

Nominees

22. Nominees for speaker and vice speaker shall participate in the Speaker/Vice Speaker Election Open Forum, where they will be allowed two minutes to speak on behalf of their candidacy before answering questions from ASRT members.

Information Distribution

23. All non-ASRT information or materials distributed during the annual governance meeting shall have prior approval from the ASRT. All non-ASRT information or materials distributed to the House of Delegates shall be identified by the author and have prior approval from the speaker.
24. During the annual governance meeting, when additional information is requested, it shall be at the discretion of the speaker of the House of Delegates.

Main Motion C-25.01

Amend The ASRT Practice Standards for Medical Imaging and Radiation Therapy.

The 2024-2025 Practice Standards Council (PSC) moves to amend the practice standards document, “The ASRT Practice Standards for Medical Imaging and Radiation Therapy.”

Current Wording: The current document is located at: <https://www.asrt.org/main/standards-and-regulations/professional-practice/practice-standards>

Proposed Wording: The document with proposed language is located at: <https://www.asrt.org/main/standards-and-regulations/professional-practice/proposed-changes>

Rationale:

In keeping with its charges, the 2024-2025 Practice Standards Council addressed the document for recommended revisions in addition to the items that had been held for future review. The subcommittees scheduled for this review cycle included Computed Tomography, Nuclear Medicine, Quality Management, Radiography, and Limited X-Ray Machine Operators. Those subcommittees have provided recommendations for their specifics to the 2024-2025 Practice Standards Council. Considering these items, current practice, document consistency and public comment, changes were proposed to The ASRT Practice Standards for Medical Imaging and Radiation Therapy.

The Commission is in support of Motion C-25.01 as amended.

Motion C-25.02

The 2024-2025 ASRT Radiation Therapy Chapter moves to adopt the following Position Statement:

Advanced Practice Roles
The ASRT supports evidence-based advanced practice roles in medical imaging and radiation therapy.
Rationale:
Currently, in the U.S., advanced practice roles exist across various modalities (the radiographer assistant, advanced practice radiation therapist, and emerging roles in ultrasound and nuclear medicine). Employers and other professional societies look to the ASRT for guidance on navigating the "grey space" of practice for modalities that may not be as established as the RA. This motion clearly states the ASRT supports AP roles in medical imaging and radiation therapy rooted in evidence-based practice. Please see our minutes attached for evidentiary documentation.

Main Motion C-25.03

Motion C-25.03 is as follows:

Motion C-25.03

The Commission moves to adopt the following Position Statement:

Safe Administration of Medications

It is the position of the American Society of Radiologic Technologists that a medical imaging and radiation therapy professional may only administer contrast media and other medications as prescribed by a licensed practitioner when a licensed practitioner or radiologist assistant, practicing as part of a radiologist-led team, is immediately available and physically present to properly identify and promptly treat adverse reactions.

Rationale:

1. Scope of Practice: The differential diagnosis of patient conditions during adverse events and the provision of advanced life support interventions are beyond the scope of practice for medical imaging and radiation therapy professionals, except for radiologist assistants.
2. Patient Safety and Quality of Care: Ensuring that a licensed practitioner or radiologist assistant is present maintains patient safety, quality of care, and adherence to best practices. This is crucial for the prompt and effective management of adverse reactions.
3. Educational Limitations: Current curricula do not support the treatment of adverse contrast reactions, including dosage and route of administration, for medical imaging and radiation therapy professionals. Immediate access to a licensed practitioner or radiologist assistant ensures proper diagnosis and treatment.
4. RA Supervision: 1. Statement from Drugs and Contrast Media Committee on Supervision of Contrast Material Administration. 2. ASRT Advisory Opinion Statement - Supervision of Contrast Media Administration by Radiologist Assistants

American Society of Radiologic Technologists
Comparison of Inflation, Cost of Member Services and Dues

The 2005 House of Delegates adopted Resolution 05-1.02, “Dues Review and Update.” The resolution requires the ASRT Board of Directors to review and report annually to the House on the effect inflation has on the cost of providing member services and its relationship to membership dues.

The ASRT Board provides the following update to the 2025 House of Delegates:

The U.S. inflation rate as of December 2024 was 2.9% annually. The current budgeted cost to provide services to each member is $148.50. If the current rate of inflation is applied to the current budgeted cost of providing member services, the cost of providing member services in the 2025 fiscal year beginning Oct. 1, 2024, and ending Sept. 30, 2025, is projected to be $152.81 per member.

ASRT Practice Resources

Practice Standards

The practice standards define the practice and establish general and specific criteria to determine compliance.

Practice standards are authoritative statements established by the profession for judging the quality of practice, service and education. Professional practice constantly changes as a result of a number of factors including technological advances, market and economic forces, and statutory and regulatory mandates.

For all medical imaging and radiation therapy professionals, aspects of professional practice can vary throughout the United States. Community custom, state statute or regulation may dictate local practice parameters. Wherever there is a conflict between these standards and state or local statutes and regulations, the state or local statutes and regulations supersede these standards. Recognizing this, the profession has adopted standards that are purposely broad in nature.

Practice standards and scopes of practice can be the documents that states, institutions and legal advisors use to assess the appropriateness of practice.

Scopes of Practice

Scopes of practice delineate the parameters of practice, identify the boundaries for practice and typically are formatted as lists of tasks that are appropriate to include as part of the work of an individual who is educationally prepared and clinically competent for that profession.

Each scope of practice is limited to that which the law allows for specific education, experience and demonstrated competency. Many states have laws, licensing bodies and regulations that describe requirements for education and training and define scopes of practice for professions.

It is important to note that even though scopes of practice are often lists of tasks, they should be worded broadly. A scope of practice may include the statement: Starting and maintaining intravenous (IV) access. This is a broad statement and does not say how to do the task or which devices to use. Those specifics may be determined by the institutional policy and may vary from facility to facility.

If the ASRT House of Delegates decides there is a need for further clarification about a specific type of IV access, then an advisory opinion statement can be developed.

Advisory Opinion Statements

Advisory opinion statements are interpretations of the practice standards. They are intended for clarification and guidance for specific practice issues.

These statements allow the organization to address practice specific issues that are not addressed in practice standards or scopes of practice. An example of an issue that ASRT considered issuing an advisory opinion statement for was the administration of medications by medical imaging and radiation therapy professionals.

Even though the practice standards indicate that administering medications was within the scope of practice for individuals who are educationally prepared and clinically competent, when the task is performed, it was often questioned. The decision was made to provide an opinion statement with evidentiary documentation that supports the performance of this task.

Position Statements

Position statements reflect the beliefs or standing of the American Society of Radiologic Technologists. In reviewing the position statements, one must take into account existing state statutes and institutional policy.

Position statements address issues outside of practice. Typically, they are not considered as strong as practice standards and scopes of practice.

When a practice issue is addressed in multiple documents — such as a position statement and a practice standard or a scope of practice — the organization runs the risk of inconsistency in defining practice for the profession. Practice-specific issues are best addressed in scope of practice, practice standards or by issuing an advisory opinion statement.

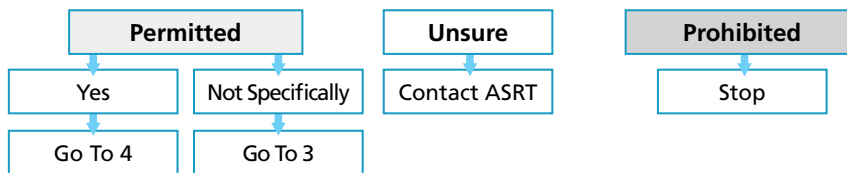

Decision Tree for Determining Scope of Practice

Decision trees are flowchart graphs or diagrams that help explore decision alternatives and their possible outcomes.

- This tool allows someone to describe a medical imaging or radiation therapy procedure, walk it through some steps and determine if it is within scope of practice.
- This tool is oftentimes included with responses to practice questions.

This information should not be considered legal advice nor should it be accepted as a substitute for advice by a licensed attorney in your state.

1. Describe the medical imaging or radiation therapy procedure, hereinafter "act," being performed.
2. Is the act expressly permitted or prohibited by the federal or state laws for the license you hold? Is the act expressly permitted or prohibited by the certification you hold? Is the act expressly permitted or prohibited by the policies and procedures of the institution by which you are employed?

3. Is the act consistent with the scope of practice based upon at least one of the following factors?
 - a. National professional organization's standards of practice.
 - b. Professional literature and research supporting evidence-based practices.
 - c. Appropriately established policies and procedures of employing facility.

4. Do you personally possess the depth and breadth of knowledge to perform the act safely and effectively as demonstrated by knowledge acquired in a basic educational program, postbasic program or continuing education program?

5. Do you personally possess current clinical competence to perform the act safely?

6. Is the performance of the act within the accepted "standard of care" that would be provided in similar circumstances by reasonable and prudent individuals who have similar training and experience?

7. Are you prepared to accept the consequences of your actions?
