

Speaker and Vice Speaker Job Descriptions

Serving on the ASRT Board of Directors as speaker or vice speaker of the House of Delegates can be a rewarding experience. However, there are a few things you should think about before making the leap, including talking to your family and employer about the commitment required of you in the position. Please review the qualifications, duties and nomination process in the ASRT Bylaws and the descriptions below to learn more about the responsibilities, time commitment and skills needed to be successful in these volunteer positions.

Speaker of the House of Delegates

Duties

The ASRT speaker of the House of Delegates is elected by the ASRT House of Delegates to lead the House. The primary duties of the speaker are to manage the work of the House, make appointments to House committees, serve as ASRT Board liaison to House committees and to the Practice Standards Council, preside at House meetings and represent the House on the ASRT Board.

Time Commitment

The speaker can expect to spend a minimum of 12 hours per week answering emails, reviewing documents, participating in virtual meetings, and working with ASRT staff, House committees and the PSC. Some of this time is during regular working hours, some is after working hours and some is on weekends. The speaker is expected to review and reply to emails in their ASRT inbox daily.

The speaker is expected to attend as many of the virtual PSC subcommittee meetings as possible, held June through September each year, and the monthly virtual meetings of the PSC held throughout the year. The speaker also is expected to attend as many of the virtual Commission and Committee on Bylaws meetings as possible. The speaker is responsible for participating in orientations for all House committees and delegates.

The speaker is expected to attend all ASRT Board meetings, all in-person meetings of House committees, and the Annual Governance and House of Delegates Meeting. Other requested travel may include representing ASRT at affiliate meetings and at meetings with other organizations. The speaker should expect to spend a minimum of 40 days attending ASRT meetings and functions. These travel days occur during the week and on weekends.

It is highly recommended that members planning to seek election as ASRT speaker communicate with their families and employers about the time commitment required for this position and gain their support before accepting the nomination.

Skills

The speaker of the House must be able to manage multiple projects concurrently, be comfortable leading large groups of people to come to a decision, be familiar with parliamentary procedure, be comfortable speaking and presenting to large groups, be detail oriented, be knowledgeable of ASRT governance and practice standards processes, be able to build collaborative relationships and be able to manage conflict within groups.

Vice Speaker of the House of Delegates

Duties

The ASRT vice speaker of the House of Delegates is elected by the ASRT House of Delegates to be the secondary leader of the House. The primary duties of the vice speaker are to assist the speaker of the House, assume the duties of the speaker when necessary, serve as ASRT Board liaison to House committees and to the Practice Standards Council, and represent the House on the ASRT Board.

Time Commitment

The vice speaker can expect to spend a minimum of 10 hours per week answering emails, reviewing documents, participating in virtual meetings, and working with ASRT staff, House committees and the PSC. Some of this time is during regular working hours, some is after working hours and some is on weekends. The vice speaker is expected to review and reply to emails in their ASRT inbox daily.

Speaker and Vice Speaker Nominations, Elections,
Qualifications and Campaigning Policies

Nominations and Elections of Speaker and Vice Speaker

(ASRT Bylaws, Article V, Section 9)

- A. At the annual meeting of the House of Delegates, prior to the close of the last business meeting of the House, a speaker of the House and a vice speaker of the House, who are members of the House, shall be elected by the credentialed delegates.
- B. Nominations for speaker and vice speaker of the House of Delegates shall be accepted at the first business meeting of the House of Delegates. Nominations shall only be accepted at the second business meeting of the House of Delegates if there are no qualified candidates nominated at the first business meeting of the House of Delegates. An individual may not run for both speaker and vice speaker in the same year.
- C. The elections of speaker and vice speaker shall be by majority vote of the delegates voting. If the majority vote is not obtained on the first ballot, the top two vote candidates, or more in the case of a tie, shall have a runoff ballot.
- D. When there is only one candidate for speaker or vice speaker, the presiding Speaker may declare the candidate elected.
- E. The affiliate or chapter that the speaker or vice speaker represents shall be entitled to fill that delegate position.
 - 1. The elected/appointed alternate affiliate delegate shall fill the position. A new qualified alternate affiliate delegate may be elected/appointed by the affiliate.
 - 2. The elected alternate chapter delegate shall fill that position. A new qualified alternate delegate may be appointed by the chapter within 60 days following the close of the annual meeting of the House of Delegates.
 - 3. If an elected alternate chapter delegate does not exist for the vacated delegate seat, the delegate position remains vacant until the next regular election.

Qualifications for Speaker and Vice Speaker

(ASRT Bylaws, Article V, Section 10)

- A. General qualifications
 - 1. Shall practice in the medical imaging and radiation therapy profession or health care.
 - 2. Shall be a voting member of the ASRT and must have been a voting member for four years immediately preceding nomination.
 - 3. Shall be a voting member of an ASRT affiliate or serve on active duty in the United States Armed Forces.
 - 4. Shall have served as a delegate for a minimum of two years.

5. Once elected, shall not serve concurrently on the board of any medical imaging or radiation therapy certification agency, accreditation agency, professional association or as a delegate in the House of Delegates.
6. Shall have the time and availability for necessary travel to represent the ASRT.

B. A speaker or vice speaker who met qualification requirements at the time of nomination shall be permitted to complete the term regardless of employment status changes.

ASRT National Office and Chapter Delegate Elections Campaign Policy

(2026 House of Delegates Procedure Manual)

Policy:

It is the policy of the American Society of Radiologic Technologists to permit campaigning for ASRT national office or chapter delegate positions. Campaigning that includes disparaging or negative information about a candidate is prohibited. Campaigning and announcement of candidacy are strictly prohibited until the ballot profiles for the applicable election have been publicly posted to the ASRT website.

Procedure:

1. ASRT members nominated for an ASRT national office or chapter delegate position will be provided a copy of the ASRT campaign policy and procedure with the candidate information forms.
2. All solicitations for nominations for ASRT national office or chapter delegate positions will include a link to the ASRT campaign policy and procedure on the ASRT website.
3. When a violation of this policy is identified, the following will apply:
 - a. The offending individual(s) and organization(s) will be contacted by the ASRT chair of the Board and asked to remove negative and/or disparaging campaign information.
 - 1) If the offending individual is a candidate, the individual will be disqualified from the election.
 - 2) If the offending organization is an ASRT affiliate, the affiliate will be sanctioned for 12 months following identification of the violation by losing the privilege of requesting review of continuing education material at no cost.
 - b. At the direction of the ASRT chair of the Board, a notification of disqualification or sanction and a description of the identified violation shall be sent by overnight mail from the ASRT office to the last recorded address of the candidate and, when applicable, to the organization or individual participating in inappropriate campaigning.
 - c. If a candidate wishes to appeal the disqualification or an affiliate wishes to appeal the sanction, the ASRT staff must be contacted within three business days of receipt of the notification. A conference call meeting of the ASRT Board of Directors will be scheduled within seven business days of receipt of the written appeal, to hear the appeal.
 - 1) The candidate and, when applicable, the organization or individual participating in inappropriate campaigning shall be informed of the time and date of the conference call meeting, have the opportunity to participate in the conference call and be represented by counsel.
 - 2) The decision to uphold or to reverse the disqualification or sanctionary action shall be by three-fourths vote of the entire ASRT Board of Directors.

Speaker and Vice Speaker Election Open Forum Procedures

The Speaker and Vice Speaker Election Open Forum is an opportunity for candidates to campaign and members to interact with speaker and vice speaker candidates prior to the election during the ASRT Annual Governance and House of Delegates Meeting. All candidates for speaker and vice speaker will be expected to participate in the Speaker and Vice Speaker Election Open Forum during the annual governance meeting.

- ASRT Board chair will serve as the open forum moderator.
- ASRT Committee on Nominations will be asked to submit questions for the candidates.
- ASRT member attendees may submit questions for candidates to JBradley@asrt.org prior to the opening of the annual governance meeting or to the moderator during the open forum. Only the ASRT vice president of governance and public policy and open forum moderator will have access to submitted questions.
- The open forum moderator will determine question selection from submissions.
- Each candidate will be given two minutes to present a verbal introduction and candidate statement. Due to logistics, candidates will not be allowed to use a PowerPoint presentation as part of this statement.
- Speaker candidates will respond to the first question. Vice speaker candidates will respond to the second question. Question rotation between the two offices will continue in this manner.
 - Each candidate for speaker will have one minute to respond to each question posed to speaker candidates.
 - Each candidate for vice speaker will have one minute to respond to each question posed to vice speaker candidates.
- Order of questions will be rotated among the candidates.

All qualified delegates considering nomination for speaker or vice speaker are encouraged to review the ASRT and ASRT Foundation Volunteer Handbook prior to accepting a nomination.
