Speaker and Vice Speaker Job Descriptions

Serving on the ASRT Board as speaker or vice speaker of the House of Delegates is truly a rewarding experience. However, there are a few things you should think about before making the leap, including talking to your family and employer about the commitment you could be making. Please review the qualifications, duties and nomination process in the ASRT Bylaws, ASRT House of Delegates Procedure Manual and the position descriptions below to learn more about the responsibilities, time commitment and skills needed to be successful in these volunteer positions.

Speaker of the House of Delegates

Duties:
The ASRT speaker of the House of Delegates is elected by the ASRT House of Delegates to lead the House. The primary duties of the speaker are to manage the work of the House of Delegates, make appointments to House of Delegates committees, serve as ASRT Board liaison to House committees and the Practice Standards Council, preside at the House of Delegates meetings, and represent the House of Delegates on the ASRT Board of Directors.

Time Commitment:
The speaker can expect to spend a minimum of 12 hours per week answering emails, reviewing documents, participating in webinars and working with ASRT staff, House committees and the Practice Standards Council. Some of this time is during regular working hours, some is after working hours and some on weekends. The speaker is expected to review and reply to email in his or her ASRT inbox daily.

The speaker is expected to attend as many of the Practice Standards Council subcommittees’ webinar meetings as possible July through September each year and also attend the monthly webinar meetings of the Practice Standards Council throughout the year. The speaker also is expected to attend as many of the Commission and Committee on Bylaws webinar meetings as possible. The speaker is responsible for participating in orientations for all House committees and delegates.

The speaker is expected to attend all ASRT Board of Directors meetings, all in-person meetings of House committees and the Annual Governance and House of Delegates Meeting. Other requested travel may include representing ASRT at affiliate meetings and meetings with other organizations. The speaker should expect to spend a minimum of 40 days attending ASRT meetings and functions. These travel days occur during the week and on weekends.

It is highly recommended that members planning to seek election as ASRT speaker communicate to their families and employers about the time commitment required for this position and gain their support prior to accepting the nomination.

Skills:
The speaker of the House must be able to manage multiple projects, be comfortable leading large groups of people in coming to a decision, be familiar with parliamentary procedure, be comfortable speaking and presenting to large groups, be detail oriented, be knowledgeable of ASRT governance and practice standards processes, be able to build collaborative relationships, and manage conflict within groups.
Vice Speaker of the House of Delegates

Duties:

Speaker and Vice Speaker Nominations, Elections, Qualifications and Campaigning Policies

Nominations and Elections of Speaker and Vice Speaker
(ASRT Bylaws, Article V, Section 9)

A. At the annual meeting of the House of Delegates, prior to the close of the last business meeting of the House, a speaker of the House and a vice speaker of the House, who are members of the House, shall be elected by the credentialed delegates.

B. Nominations for speaker and vice speaker of the House of Delegates shall be accepted at the first business meeting of the House of Delegates. Nominations shall only be accepted at the second business meeting of the House of Delegates if there are no qualified candidates nominated at the first business meeting of the House of Delegates. An individual may not run for both speaker and vice speaker in the same year.

C. The elections of speaker and vice speaker shall be by majority vote of the delegates voting. If the majority vote is not obtained on the first ballot, the top two vote candidates, or more in the case of a tie, shall have a runoff ballot.

D. When there is only one candidate for speaker or vice speaker, the election may be by voice vote.

E. The affiliate or chapter that the speaker or vice speaker represents shall be entitled to fill that delegate position.
   1. The elected/appointed alternate affiliate delegate shall fill the position. A new qualified alternate affiliate delegate may be elected/appointed by the affiliate.
   2. The elected alternate chapter delegate shall fill that position. A new qualified alternate delegate may be appointed by the chapter within 60 days following the close of the annual meeting of the House of Delegates.
   3. If an elected alternate chapter delegate does not exist for the vacated delegate seat, the delegate position remains vacant until the next regular election.

Qualifications for Speaker and Vice Speaker
(ASRT Bylaws, Article V, Section 10)

A. General qualifications
   1. Shall practice in the medical imaging and radiation therapy profession or health care.
   2. Shall be a voting member of the ASRT and must have been a voting member for four years immediately preceding nomination.
   3. Shall be a voting member of an ASRT affiliate or serve on active duty in the United States Armed Forces.
   4. Shall have served as a delegate for a minimum of two years.
5. Once elected, shall not serve concurrently on the board of any national medical imaging or radiation therapy certification or national accreditation agency, or as a delegate in the House of Delegates.
6. Shall have the time and availability for necessary travel to represent the ASRT.

B. A speaker or vice speaker who met qualification requirements at the time of nomination shall be permitted to complete the term regardless of employment status changes.

ASRT National Office and Chapter Delegate Elections Campaign Policy
(2019 House of Delegates Procedure Manual – Appendix G)

It is the policy of the American Society of Radiologic Technologists to permit campaigning for ASRT national office or chapter delegate positions. Campaigning that includes disparaging or negative information about a candidate is prohibited.

Procedure:

1. ASRT members nominated for an ASRT national office or chapter delegate position will be provided a copy of the ASRT campaign policy and procedure with the candidate information forms.
2. All solicitations for nominations for ASRT national office or chapter delegate positions will include a link to the ASRT Campaign Policy and procedure on the ASRT website.
3. When a violation of this policy is identified, the following will apply:
   a. The offending individual(s) and organization(s) will be contacted by the ASRT chairman of the Board and asked to remove negative and/or disparaging campaign information.
      1) If the offending individual is a candidate, the individual will be disqualified from the election.
      2) If the offending organization is an ASRT affiliate, the affiliate will be sanctioned for 12 months following identification of the violation by losing the privilege of requesting review of continuing education material at no cost.
   b. At the direction of the ASRT chairman of the Board, a notification of disqualification or sanction and a description of the identified violation shall be sent by overnight mail from the ASRT office to the last recorded address of the candidate and, when applicable, to the organization or individual participating in inappropriate campaigning.
   c. If a candidate wishes to appeal the disqualification or an affiliate wishes to appeal the sanction, the ASRT staff must be contacted within three business days of receipt of the notification. A conference call meeting of the ASRT Board of Directors will be scheduled within seven business days of receipt of the written appeal, to hear the appeal.
      1) The candidate and, when applicable, the organization or individual participating in inappropriate campaigning, shall be informed of the time and date of the conference call meeting, have the opportunity to participate in the conference call and be represented by counsel.
      2) The decision to uphold or to reverse the disqualification or sanctionary action shall be by three-fourths vote of the entire ASRT Board of Directors.
Speaker/Vice Speaker Open Forum Procedures

The Speaker/Vice Speaker Open Forum is an opportunity for candidates to campaign and members to interact with speaker and vice speaker candidates prior to election during the Annual Governance and House of Delegates Meeting. All candidates for speaker and vice speaker will be expected to participate in the Speaker/Vice Speaker Open Forum during the ASRT Annual Governance and House of Delegates Meeting.

- ASRT Board chairman will serve as the open forum moderator.
- ASRT Committee on Nominations will be asked to submit questions for the candidates.
- ASRT member attendees may submit questions for candidates to gmorrison@asrt.org prior to the opening of the ASRT Annual Governance and House of Delegates Meeting or to the moderator during the open forum. Only the acting ASRT chief governance officer and open forum moderator will have access to submitted questions.
- The open forum moderator will determine question selection from those submitted.
- Each candidate will be given two minutes to present a verbal introduction and candidate statement. Due to logistics, candidates will not be allowed to use a PowerPoint presentation as part of this statement.
- Speaker candidates will respond to first question. Vice speaker candidates will respond to second question. Question rotation between the two offices will continue in this manner.
  - Each candidate for speaker will have one minute to respond to each question posed to speaker candidates.
  - Each candidate for vice speaker will have one minute to respond to each question posed to vice speaker candidates.
- Order of questions will be rotated among the candidates.
